

CHRIS HALL MEMORIAL Scholarship application

Chris Hall had a love for the game of lacrosse. He enjoyed the time he could spend with his three children while coaching them and it became a major part of his family life. He coached for Lake Tapps Lacrosse Club at every age level. He was an assistant high school coach for Bethel Lacrosse Club while simultaneously sitting on the SSL board as president and serving as a US Lacrosse representative for Washington State. He went on to found Orting Lacrosse Club where he also coached until the last days of his life. Chris loved nothing more than introducing new players to the game and watching them grow to love lacrosse. This scholarship is meant to continue Chris's legacy by offering one player the financial means to pay for a season of club fees, purchase an initial set of gear and a first stick.
